ARE YOU EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS?

Visit a location below to complete a 20-30 minute assessment called Coordinated Entry. Coordinated Entry helps quickly connect people to available resources and housing by gathering information through an enrollment and assessment process. By participating in Coordinated Entry, agencies will be able to connect you to resources you need and it will provide us with information on resources Denton County doesn't have currently in order to help you and more people in the future.

★ Agencies with the star symbol provide Street Outreach and are able to come to you and complete assessments outside of their office locations ★

* Some Coordinated Entry hours differ from regular hours of operation

KEEP IN MIND - Coordinated Entry does not guarantee assistance and does not mean new resources are available. We are working diligently with many households to end their homelessness, but resources are limited. It is possible and likely that programs you are interested in will not have any current openings, and there is no way to tell when a program may be able to offer assistance. This is not a housing wait list or housing application. This is an initial assessment to identify the best housing option for you.

TRANSPORTATION TO HUMAN SERVICE AGENCIES

The Denton County Transportation Authority and the City of Denton collaborated to create a map of social services across Denton County where access via public transportation is available. Visit <https://www.dcta.net/rider-info/passenger-info/access-human-services> to view the live map and a table of how to access each service agency via public transportation.

Program:

Denton City County Day School (DCCDS) is dedicated to giving your child the best start in life by laying the foundation for a lifetime of learning. Our mission is to provide quality pre-kindergarten education to children ages two through five in Denton County. Our vision is that all of our children will enter kindergarten with the necessary social and academic skills to be successful in every way.

Denton City County Day School (DCCDS) is a nonprofit preschool serving a multicultural community since 1952. Our school recognizes the uniqueness of each child and provides positive encouragement for the child's continued growth. The fundamental reason for developmentally appropriate, child-centered, experiential learning is to enable our children to think critically, work cooperatively, and solve problems creatively. Our curriculum encourages children to develop a healthy and positive self-concept through individualized instruction. Our school environment offers hands-on learning experiences for abstract concept development and opportunities for creative learning. This allows children to make sense of what they are learning and to connect or integrate their knowledge in ways that lead to rich conceptual development.

Attendance and level of service is determined by an IEP committee and is based upon educational assessment and need. A continuum of services is available for K-12 students with hearing impairment who need instruction by certified teachers of the deaf and/or interpreter services. Based upon assessment of educational need, the IEP committee may place a student in a self-contained deaf education classroom setting or a fully mainstreamed setting with a sign language interpreter or any combination of these instructional options.*
